Maximilian (1459-1519) became Emperor in 1493. A versatile man, he included the writing of books in his activities, employing among others for their illustration, ALBRECHT DÜRER. It was Maximilian's death (1519) that embroiled Spain, Burgundy and Austria under the Hapsburgs. And it was the abdication of Charles that again divided the Hapsburgs into eastern & Western.
